Regarding Food Service Permits in Whitman County:

- Permits must be renewed annually to continue operating.
- Renewals are sent out at the beginning of the calendar year, and permits expire January 31 of each year.
- Establishments are classified based on operation type and risk category of menu and process. Permit fees are set by the Whitman County Board of Health and are subject to change each year.
- The initial plan review and pre-opening inspection is accompanied by a plan review fee.
- Permits are not transferable. If your operation relocates, or changes business name/owner, the new operation is subject to fees for plan review and reinstatement of permit
- Food service establishments are inspected once every 6-18 months depending on risk category. These are known as Routine Inspections. Please note the Food Enforcement Procedure found here:
https://www.whitmancountypublichealth.org/uploads/9/4/9/8/94983524/food_enforcement_procedure.pdf
- Failed inspections are put into a compliance schedule. Repeat failed inspections may cause forced closure on the restaurant until back into compliance.
- Any significant changes in menu, ownership, equipment or facility must be reviewed and approved by Whitman County Public Health.

3. Menu & Food Handling Procedures

Attach a detailed copy of your menu including all food and drinks you will be serving. Provide food preparation steps for all menus using the table below.
